GAMCO Asset Management Investment Strategies
Research driven, value oriented investments.

VALUE

Fundamental, bottom-up Private Market Value with a Catalyst™

Our firm's history as a Value investor is based on a fundamentally-driven, active investment approach that utilizes our time-tested Private Market Value with a Catalyst™ philosophy. We seek to identify attractive businesses trading at a meaningful discount to our assessment of a company's value, and that stand to benefit from a catalyst that will unlock surface value.

Institutional client strategies since 1977

GROWTH

Identify large cap companies with superior long term growth prospects

We are fundamental growth investors, seeking to invest in companies with superior growth prospects whose stocks appear undervalued relative to their future earnings stream.

Institutional client strategies since 1987

CONVERTIBLES

Convertible securities as a means for reduced volatility equity investing

Convertibles are an attractive, stand-alone asset class due to their asymmetrical return profile which allows us to maintain exposure to the upside in their underlying equities while collecting income and reducing our potential downside.

Institutional client strategies since 1979

About

The Gabelli Research Process

Gabelli is a global investment firm. Its mission is to deliver superior results and an exceptional client experience.

We offer an array of investment choices across funds (Open and Closed-End) and separate accounts. Today, we combine research with our accumulated, comparative knowledge to craft our value growth, fixed-income, and convertibles strategies.

The Gabelli Research Process rests solidly on three pillars:

People

The Gabelli Equity Research Team includes over 30 sector-focused analysts who spend equal time poring over financials and conducting on-site research to gain deep insights into all investment disciplines.

Process

Our trademarked Private Market Value (PMV) with Catalyst™ approach follows a fundamentally-driven, active investment approach that utilizes our time-tested Private Market Value with a Catalyst™ philosophy. We seek to identify attractive businesses trading at a meaningful discount to our assessment of a company's value, and that stand to benefit from a catalyst that will unlock surface value.

Philosophy

Our proprietary research process begins with an examination of a company's intrinsic value. From our universe of over 2000 companies, we invest in companies as owners of those businesses.

HOW WE DO IT

Gabelli Values

Research relationships and results are inextricably linked. We begin strong ties with clients, provide exceptional experiences, and deliver long-term results.

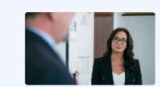

Research

Our bottom-up research methodology informs every investment strategy, creating us to uncover hidden value and deliver superior returns.

Relationships

We create trust and build long-term client partnerships by aligning our solutions with each client's unique needs.

Results

We deliver true, tested money-making solutions, offering tailored strategies through various investment vehicles.

Your Goals are our Goals

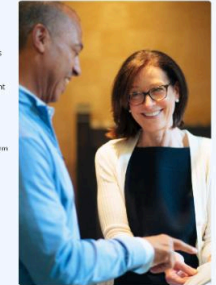

For every goal you have, we have a solution. If you're looking for ideas, we'll be an important part of your strategy.

WHO WE DO IT FOR

Gabelli Service

Institutional and individual clients have entrusted Gabelli with their assets for nearly five decades.

We join our investors' unique needs with Gabelli's trademarked investment approach into bespoke strategies. We aim to earn a superior absolute return for our clients.

Institutional Investors

We provide institutional clients with tailored strategies to generate long-term growth. Our research-driven approach ensures we can navigate complex market environments, helping institutions confidently achieve investment objectives.

Private Wealth Clients

For high-net-worth individuals and families, we offer personalized wealth management services. We aim to preserve and grow wealth, support their financial goals, and create a lasting legacy for future generations.

Investment Professionals

We partner with investment professionals to deliver innovative strategies aligned with their clients' needs. By leveraging our proprietary research and investment insights, we help advisors enhance their offerings and achieve superior outcomes for their clients.

OUR INSPIRATION

Gabelli Legacy

For nearly 50 years, Main Gabelli has defined our commitment to helping clients achieve their financial aspirations.

As a pioneer of value investing, Main Gabelli founded Gabelli with a clear purpose: to leverage rigorous research to generate superior returns. His innovative strategies and commitment to excellence have defined Gabelli as an investment leader known for steady performance, and the ability to navigate the complexities of the financial markets.

Under Marco's leadership, Gabelli continues to refine its proprietary research methodologies to consistently deliver strong, risk-adjusted returns and build an unparalleled reputation with clients and investors.

Client First Investment Solutions

The Gabelli Discipline is reflected across all of our investment products. Our diverse strategies are offered through an array of products to meet every investor's needs.
